Nicaragua Not Worried.

Panama, Jan. 1.—The officials and business men of Nicaragua are not disturbed over the rejuvenation of the Panama canal scheme. They believe the Nicaragua plan is the only feasible one.

The Nicaraguan Government would, it is said, prefer to deal directly with the American Government in the negotiations that are to come, and it is asserted that more liberal terms would be given under those circumstances.

Nicaragua territory cannot be ceded, but a long lease could be obtained. The attitude of Costa Rica is uncertain.
